

Hospitality unfolds with Goelst

The trusted name for high quality
curtain rail systems

Goelst: an eye for detail

Perception. That's what hospitality is all about. In this business, small details make a big difference. Goelst helps to enhance the customer-experience with its smooth, perfectly finished curtain rail systems.

Full program

We provide rails for all possible types of curtains, fabrics, spaces and control methods: from curved skylight systems to hotel curtains that open automatically upon entering a room. Goelst has a right answer to all your wishes.

Tailored solutions

Bespoke products are our forte. If needed, rails are curved by specialists using dedicated Goelst bending equipment. Components are manufactured in our Dutch production plant. Hence, we can provide smooth-running rail systems fashioned from a single section of rail. We will listen to your ideas and make sure to come up with the best solutions, we will gladly exchange thoughts to make sure we can offer you the best options. There is only one thing we will never compromise on: quality.

From A to Z

Goelst gathered lots of expertise and years of experience under one roof. It's your guarantee for high quality of communication, advise, products and services. We manage both new built projects and renovations. Our systems are compatible with most of building management- and home automation systems.
